

Australian Teletrial Program – South Australia: Capacity and capability building for regional areas forming patients' journeys from ordinary to extraordinary!

SA Regional Teletrial Sites

Pascale Dettwiller and Jessica Southwood
Australian Teletrial Program – South Australia, Department for Health and Wellbeing

2019

Australian Teletrial Program (ATP), is awarded funding through the Commonwealth Government's Medical Research Future Fund – National Critical Infrastructure Initiative – 2019 Rural, Regional and Remote Clinical Trial Enabling Infrastructure grant

2021

Contracts executed
Project commenced

2022

Established South Australian Regional Clinical Trial Coordinating Centre (RCCC)

- Manager
- Medical Director
- Clinical Trials Liaison Officer
- Cluster Start-up Specialist
- Administrative Officer

Stakeholder engagement, capacity building and capability mapping in regional SA sites in preparation for recruitment of Nurse Consultant/ Clinical Research Coordinators

Australian Clinical Trials Education Centre (A-CTEC) Learning Management System open in SA (September 2022)

Medical areas of clinical trials

2023

Spring into Clinical Trials
Signature Event between ATP-SA, SAHMRI and HTSA

Building capacity: Nurse Consultant/ Clinical Research Coordinators appointed in 3 regional locations

FIRST STUDY FIRST PARTICIPANT
Oncology Trial (August 2023) SA / NT

FIRST SA regional satellite site participant recruited (December 2023)

Commencement of second Cluster Start-up Specialist and Training & Development Officer - Clinical Trials

2024

Commenced first Teletrial Support Program payment

Milestone achieved - 100 rural, regional remote participants recruited to SA Satellite Sites

Further increasing capacity and building collaborations with all LHNs and university stakeholders to support research infrastructure development in regional SA

100

Lift (elevator) cards
The 4 lifts in the CitiCentre building were decorated with 6 different Q&A clue cards that invited engagement with the foyer display to learn more to guess the SA Health Trailblazer.

Left: The CitiCentre fo, ATP-SA branded pens notepads were made ava. to staff and visitors to the CitiCentre building.

Above: The CitiCentre TV screen provided a bold digite' presence.

2025

Consolidation of the Program with increased capacity and resources across the six regional Local Health Networks

Recruited over 300 participants in 18 regional SA satellite sites

300

1648 staff in SA trained on clinical trial related methodology

